This is not just another leadership class.

This two-day program will call for personnel at every level to think more critically about their leadership role within their organization. When someone decides to enter public safety, they have decided they want to be leaders in their community. The very nature of their profession makes them leaders; they deal with chaos and bring order. They go out in the community with the intent of making it a better place to work and raise a family.

This program is designed for police, fire, corrections, and communications personnel at all levels including future leaders, FTO's, future FTO's, Training Officers, senior officers, newly promoted supervisors, future supervisors, public safety leaders, and up and coming personnel in agencies and organizations. Now is the time to start developing your leadership skills! Prepare TODAY!

The course is taught by Chief Neal Rossow (ret). Chief Rossow has a no-nonsense approach and keep his classes lively, open and engaging. You are sure to take away many practical tools and a new perspective on leadership and your role in your organization.
